

Make training your dog simple

Learn how you and your dog can impress your family and friends with one of New Zealand's top animal trainers. First time Seminar available to the public in the Wellington area

Animal Handler – Karen Sadler Sunday 18 November – 9am to 5pm NZKC Building, Prosser Street, Porirua

Karen Sadler is one of the best animal trainers in New Zealand. Her talents are not only limited to the long list of New Zealand titles that she has achieved with her own dogs, including wins at the National Dog Show, National Dog Training Assembly and representing her region on numerous occasions but also training a large number of different breeds from Toy to Giant. At one stage she had 130 dogs which she was employed to provide training to. Karen is presently the Company Director for Agrade Animals Action Limited which is primarily a company providing professional dog training and training dogs for film and TV. Some of the more well known appearances include:

4 x Roly (Purex) commercials, Shortland Street, Bridge to Tereabithia - Walt Disney/Walden Media (Comes out in Feb 2007) and Whale Rider

Karen has completed a paper on principles in canine behavior at Massey University and her training methods have been widely tested by people from all around the country. They are also easy and fun for both you and your dog with a lot of emphasis being put on rewarding good behaviour.

Have you found training your pooch frustrating and results seem to come to slow and far between? Then this is the seminar for you. This seminar is not only aimed both at people already dog owners but also those who are thinking about getting a canine friend.
